

Maggie Lin

Management
Consultant in Boston
Consulting Group / WEF
global shaper

USA

Maggie has more than five years of experiences in management consulting, developing business strategy for Fortune 500 companies across Asia, Europe, and USA. She was a WEF (The World Economic Forum) global shaper in Taipei hub, focusing on education and employability initiatives.

Maggie also established a student association, "BizPro", in National Taiwan University, teaching 21st century employability skills to college students since 2011.